Fire / EMS Report:

The Training Division had what we like to term a weird month. Normally we like to get out and see our crews complete practical training with multiple companies and running drills. With this current environment our station officers have stepped in and continued to drill their crews as single companies within there own stations.

Most of the month was spent on PPE guidelines and equipment reviews, new guidelines that have had to be updated multiple times to stay current with changing CDC guidelines. Soon we hope to be back to a normal climate and get out there and mix it up with the crews again.
